Criminal Law.

FELONIES AND MISDEMEANORS.

Criminal law is divided into two main categories: felony and misdemeanor. Felonies are criminal offenses that carry a minimum penalty of more than one year incarceration. Felonies include: Murder, Aggravated Battery, Weapons Offenses, Arson, Sexual Assault, and Armed Robbery. Misdemeanors include: Public Intoxication, DUI, Speeding, Trespassing, and Vandalism.

Drug crimes are one of the most common criminal charges, and the drug laws in Illinois are very stringent. While penalties vary depending on the amount and type of drugs, convictions often carry harsh penalties, including lengthy incarceration, substantial fines, and strict probation.

Felony and misdemeanor charges are serious. It is important to enlist the help of an experienced criminal attorney who understands the ins and outs of the criminal justice system and can advocate on your behalf for dismissal or reduction of charges. Call us immediately at 312.332.5134 if you're facing a felony, misdemeanor, or drug charges to schedule a meeting. Your initial consultation is FREE.
